

The Piper McKenzie Show

Circus • Comedy • Creativity • Character

The Piper McKenzie Show brings together physical comedy, inventive juggling, and exceptional free-standing circus ladder skills in a playful performance full of surprises. Drawing on decades of experience entertaining audiences around the world, Piper turns everyday objects into extraordinary challenges, building laughter and suspense through quick wit, audience interaction, and impressive feats of balance.

Show Options

Street and Festival Shows

Designed for outdoor pitches and festival settings, this adaptable street show welcomes passing spectators and builds them into an engaged audience.

Performance options include a free-standing circus ladder act or a balancing sequence incorporating a skateboard stack. Club juggling, knives, fire, or LED clubs can be included to suit the programme, venue, and daytime or evening schedule.

Corporate & Private Events

For company celebrations, client receptions, and private parties, Piper tailors his performance to the audience, atmosphere, and running order. His ability to read the room and work with organizers makes the show a flexible addition to your event. Shared laughter and playful participation give guests a natural way to connect, helping break the ice between colleagues and bringing different groups together.
